SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE—SAUCI
FOR THE GANDER

The following article from the Montreal Witness of a recent date is worth careful perusal by our readers.
It is a good sense cannot fail to commend it to the consideration of all thinking people.

The sale of liquor to Indians is for-bidden with universal consent. The same veto prevails with regard to the so-called 'natives' of South Africa. It is one of the boasts of the foreign polity of President Cleveland that he takes the lead in preventing the sale of liquor to the negroes of the Congo.
Is not this a wicked oppression of men and of the personal liberty of individuals, of whom in two of the cases the whites are the natural guardians, and with regard to whom in the other they have no responsibility except as being the brother's keepers? If it is a good thing for men to live in the presence of this temptation why not allow this good thing to red, yellow and black men?
If manhood is thus best developed, why refuse them the opportunity to develop manhood? Why not send out missionaries selected by Canon Hamoulin and Dr. Rainford to set up sanctified bars among them and open them with prayer? The proud Saxon will reply that these reds and blacks and yellow are children, and many things must be refused to children that are not refused to men.
It might, indeed, be urged that if temptation is good for the development of manhood then undeveloped man need not abstain. But supposing the distinction is good one, it would serve the turn of those who make it better if they could prove that the people among whom we license the sale of liquor are all grown men. Even Dr.
Rainford has made a promise of his portentous tolerance of a law breaking saloon in the immediate neighborhood of his church that it shall not be a women's. So it seems that women are not to have their womanhood developed in the same way that men are to have their manhood developed.
Either womanhood is to be made of different stuff or woman are to be cavaged with children, imbeciles and savages, as not fit to be trusted with such heroic methods of self development. If he thinks it is not nice for women to drink in the same houses with men—though, throughout Christendom at least, women are allowed to eat with men, without harm to either—that it is not nice for them to be providing special barrooms or parlors in separate houses for women to develop their womanhood in. But, besides women, the majority of those whom the licensed and sanctioned barroom myths are actually children in the eyes of the law. Possibly the reverend providers of liquor would exclude these also from the operations of the model saloon; but how they are going to save these imbecile minors from basing their conduct on the pretext and sanction of their spiritual guides we do not see. But even supposing prohibition to be enforced on women and children by the moral weight of Christianity, are the promoters of the manhood saloons sure that all full-grown male human beings of the white race are men in the category of those who are able to develop their manhood in the barroom? If they are sure of this, they are themselves only fit for the lunatic asylum.
If, then, it is right in principle and not impracticable in practice to protect red men and yellow men and black men by prohibition; if it is right in principle and not impracticable in practice to protect women and minors by prohibition, how can it be wrong in principle or impracticable in practice to protect the whole of our race from what is readily acknowledged to be its greatest curse? Surely the opponents of prohibition are governed by delusions, the result probably of inherited prejudice, such as to raise questions as to their capacity for intelligent judgment.

The Regina Standard properly calls attention to the conditions which lead to the conditions of Public Instruction and the justice of a revision of Normal school sessions from the seat of Government, with a view to having the second and third classes held at central points throughout the Territories. The Standard should have gone farther and stated that necessity demands that such shall be the case and further that the Council of Public Instruction, should at once notify every school board in the country that such is the intention.
No one can tell what the result might have been, had the Standard taken up this question during the last session of the Assembly. At that time, if we are correctly informed, only one member of the house called attention to the incoherence and expense of the system adopted as well as the impossibility of at least some worthy teacher taking advantage of it. None of the other members seemed to think the matter worth further consideration and the Standard, Leader, and other papers in the immediate vicinity of the Capital remained mum. The Standard's pointed remarks respecting the officers of the educational branch of our Local Government are no doubt made with a thorough knowledge of the conditions as they exist. It has been a long struggle among the present incumbents of those offices and at times has been fit to treat rather curtly those who differed from them.
It is equally true that the Standard has kept in advance of all other Territorial papers in the matter of Educational Reform and owing to its being edited by an old and able teacher is no doubt due the fact that it has increased every case voiced public sentiment on these questions. Its action in the case of Normal sessions, having been backward, it is safe to infer that its present attitude is only assumping a careful examination of conditions as they exist and they should lead to early action in the direction it suggests.

Peterboro', with the aid of A. H. H. H. and, is about to erect itself into a city. We will say welcome to the driving metaphors of the middle class, and will hope that that property which is so fittingly not proprietorship today may carry her onward to the distinction of being the most industrious city, as she has been the most industrious and progressive town.

Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, of New York, has shown that one strong, persistent man can do much in the cause of morality. It is more than a year since the reverend gentleman began his campaign against the unsavory results of the English district in New York He found the police there winking at the wickedness which by their inactivity they protected, but he made it so warm for them that the police commissioners have moved many police captains to districts, and satisfaction there where it was that the law is enforced.

President Peixoto, of Brazil, who has refreshed himself every morning for some weeks past by sleeping before breakfast such rebels as tell him his hands, bids for to come under the fire of the executioner himself shortly.
His cause lost, and the rebellions Melio is reaching out a long, lean hand to grasp him.

Things are picking up in Australia.
One of the reconstructed banks, the National Bank of Australasia, has since its reconstruction in June last made a dividend of 5 per cent, on its preference shares and 4 1/2 on its ordinary shares. The Bank of New South Wales has just declared a half yearly dividend of 12 1/2 per cent.

Buffalo Bill will be a candidate for the Governorship of Nebraska. He during the campaign Mr. Cody slashes around in his long hair with his gun-in evidence, as he does on the stage, the opposition candidate will jump the state and go into foreign retirement. There could be no pleasure in outing against such a gorgeously quipped gun bear.

A Boston Boy's Eyesight Saved—Perhaps His Life

By Hood's Sarsaparilla—Blood Poisoned by Canker.

Read the following from a grateful mother:
"My little boy had Scarlet Fever when 4 years old, and it left him very weak and with blood poisoned with canker. His eyes became inflamed and his sufferings were intense, and for seven weeks he Could Not Open His Eyes.

I took him twice during that time to the Eye and Ear Infirmary on Charles street, but their remedies failed to do him the faintest shadow of good. I commenced giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it soon cured him. I have never doubted that it saved his sight, even if not his very life. You only use the Sarsaparilla in any way you choose. I am always ready to sound the praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla because of the wonderful good it did my son."
